Clif High: Yes, Here's How Trump Is Reinstated and the Path To a 9-0 Supreme Court Ruling

I woke up today to find out two of my favorite people just released a new video.

I think Greg Hunter from USA Watchdog is one of the best interviewers out there and I love listening to the incomparable Clif High.

We've covered Clif here many times before and the man is simply unique and obviously someone who sees the world very uniquely.

He also comes from a computer science / big data background and that's his secret weapon.

He runs proprietary computer programs that mine millions upon millions of gigabytes of data from the internet and then sort and search for patterns.

His programs have proven very accurate in the past, which is one reason why so many people tune in to listen when he has something to say.

I also know many of you like Clif as much as I do because a couple of you emailed me the link to his interview this morning as I was watching it myself!

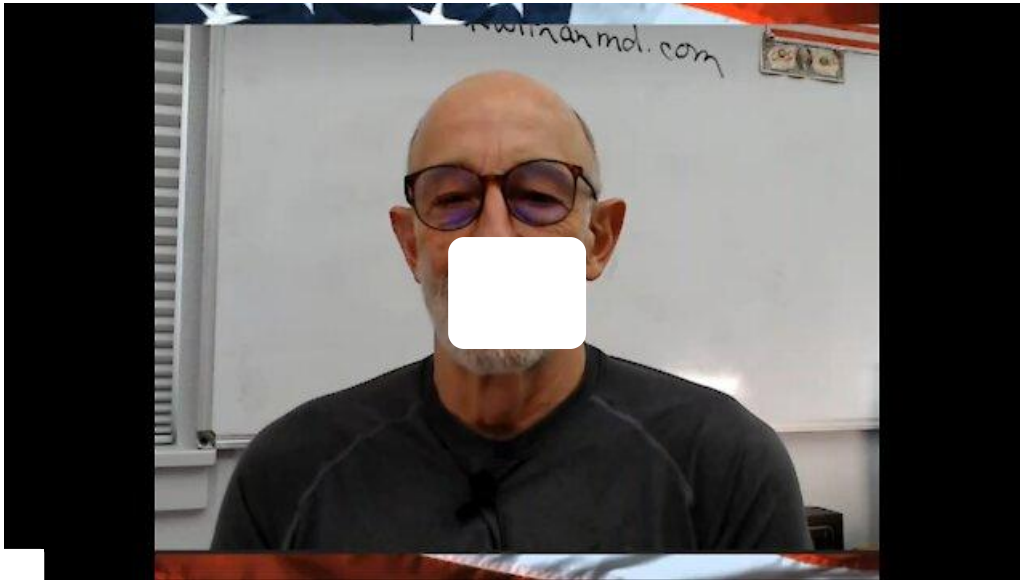

Great minds think alike!

They cover everything in this interview from Bitcoin going over $100,000 (it's currently about $32,000) this year to silver going to at least $600/oz and maybe over $1,000/oz (it's currently about $27/oz) and then near the end they talk Trump.

The whole thing is fantastic and you really just need to watch for yourself.

Please enjoy it here on Rumble:

They won't "send the Gestapo." They'll use the Stalin model: snitches. If you want to know where the "stock market" deserves to be, look at the national debt, currently around $28.5 trillion, vs the Dow the national debt, currently around $20.5 trillion, vs the Dow, currently around 34,500. For forty years, the Dow has reflected the national debt -- from 1000 as the debt crossed $1 trillion during Regan, to mid-5000s and $5.6 trillion during Clinton, even to numbers in early Obama.

Since then, the debt has run away from the Dow, and we're severely out of balance. That's trouble.

As for "door to door," STAY OFF MY LAWN.

Violence? Well, we know now that, based on January 6, it's okay to shoot and kill non-threatening, unarmed trespassers, so violent rioters are no longer safe. Violence will escalate, but it will no longer be confined to the traditionally violent thugs and rioters. Cops will continue to quit. The scale of violence will be unimaginable.

The crooks aren't "20 years early." They moved with Obama's reign, anticipating Hillary, rather than a pro-American who knew what was happening... and started to show us the way out.

Yikes. It's not Harvard the university, it's Harvard Pilgrim Health Care. They look sketchy, even have a super cheese fake looking Harvard coat of arms on their website, I guess trying to look like Harvard? Yeesh, whenever you hear something like that... remember to "Test everything and hold to that which is true." Even on sites you like. Especially when you are hearing something you really want to be true. Make sure it is by looking it up from different places.

I worry that Trump is being used to lull the public to think he is going to do something to help us, while the deep state achieves their goal of decimating the population. They have vaccinated 45% of our population so far and the door to door will add another 5-8% and these people will probably die within 2 years, so part of the goal has already been achieved. Trump is being held back by his group of the deep state and is taking more time than we want because his handlers are holding him back from completing his personal desires of defending America and MAKING AMERICA GREAT AGAIN.

I have to say I think you are so wrong. Look what kind of mess that the African that lived in the WH for 8 year's had done to this Country. Trump got in and worked himself crazy to try and straighten what Dinkledorf tried to Ruin (Our Country). Trump got thing's all, well not all but helped this Country and the Good American People get back to a little Norman. Then the Communist DemonRat's got in the Government and look how many people got layed off, Gas prices, Milk is almost 7.00 a Gallon. Threating all of us with that Damn Poison shot. They are the very ones that has taken this Country down in the Sewer just where they are all at. It will take a Smart Business Man to try to get a little Normal back again. Oh yes look at the way the Country's are Laughing at Beijing Joe and that Deminted Man is going to take us to War yet with his Stupidty, yes and ObumDung.

I agree with all you are saying, but biden is pulling America into destruction. Trump is associated with some part of the deep state, just not sure which part. He is controlled by some part of the deep state and I believe that this group is tying his hands about what he is trying to do for America. I believe in Trump but worry about the slowness of progress. I understand he is up against a base of evil that is so massive that he can not afford to make a mistake but biden seems to be moving faster and I fear that if this continues we may be driven to a point of no return. I believe we are in the end times and that the Bible shows what will eventually happen and I believe this is in our time.

I cant wait. All the 100% stupid will die soon, please die now. Realstate will become super cheap, the market will be flooded with listings 1000x what we saw in 2008, jobs will skyrocket. Un-inoculated sperm will be worth alot of money due to all the infertility. Many democrat libitards will be no more! To all patriots stay unvaxxed and avoid all tyranny to try and force it on you. PREP-get seeds to grow food. ex cut off the top of green pepper and instead of throwing the top away save all the seeds, take the roll out instead of throwing the top away save all the seeds, take the germ out of tomatoes that contain the seed and dry them on wax paper in the sun and put into containers, order the rest you cant seem to acquire. Build green houses to protect your veggies you grow from all the chem trails being spread. They may crop dust us from the sky and thats the best to protect outdoor growing and there are light towers you can grow food now inside the house. Get your basics in check. Get organized with LIKE MINDED people. If you get a door knocker LIE and tell them your vaxed. flood them with false numbers. Expect like the idiots that were bugging you when they were doing the national census. Make a huge waste of time and a failed movement. Advise your friend sand family members still unvaxed to save as many people we can.

He just got done saying the military (7 of 10 in leadership) has been corrupted, and then says 'Military Coup'...and he doesn't like that idea. 😏 And then he says that 70% of our population will be Pissed Off SO INTENSELY that by this time next month, the SCOTUS will vote 9-0 to get Trump back...Even though there is ZERO Constitutional Pathway for it? YES, I GET the Unprecedented-ness of this all...but I would think, We ALL (and that includes that Crack-High Retards on the LEFT) need to SEE IRON CLAD PROOF that the Election was Fraudulent, China Manipulated, Biden Cheated...Whatever...Truly 100% Concrete PROOF that even the Libtards cannot deny. I bought the 1st Hour of this...and the last 10 minutes, he basically threw some shit together...Demmit!
