The Russian armed forces arrested Canadian General Trevor Cadieu in Mariupol on the night of 2-3 May 2022. He is currently in Moscow awaiting to stand trial.

General Trevor Kadier was apparently not on a mission for his government, but was in charge of biolaboratory No. 1, with 18 staff working under his command.

The National Pulse reported that Hunter Biden, son of US President Joe Biden, and Christopher Heinz, John Kerry's son-in-law, had organized subcontracting arrangements for Ukrainian research laboratories through their firm Rosemont Capital, on behalf of the Pentagon's Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA).

The Chinese Foreign Ministry revealed that the United States operates 336 biological and chemical weapons research laboratories abroad.

The Security Council held a meeting on this matter on March 11, 2022.
